

Greater Cincinnati Running Club
Meeting Minutes
April 3, 2023

Attendance: Todd Hofacre, Liz Hofacre, Jim Welland

- The current checking account balance is $10401.39. There are no outstanding checks. There is one pending deposit.
- Todd went over March expenses. These were primarily for the suite at the Westin and food provided to members at the suite for the Heart Mini Marathon.
- Membership was discussed. There are sixty-five households and seventy-three members.
- It was decided to use SendinBlue instead of MailChimp because it is more cost efficient.
- There were about three thousand runners in the Heart Mini Marathon. About twenty-one club members participated. There were not many, who took advantage of the Westin Suite which is limited to members.
- Possible Grand Prix awards were pitched. Scoring will hopefully be current after the Dogwood Dash.
- To have an annual meeting as well as give out awards for the Grand Prix winners, a picnic was discussed as well as possible venues.
- Todd went to a meeting for the Flying Pig water stop. CPR training was provided which he took.
- The Facebook page and other social media were discussed.
- There was a debate about whether the Club should put on the Cross-Country series because of the exceptionally low turnout. Different venues were discussed. More will follow.
- The next meeting is scheduled on ZOOM on May 1, 2023.

The meeting adjourned at 740.
